

PEOPLE AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. Role and Purpose of the Committee

The People and Remuneration Committee (Committee) is a committee of the Board of Directors (Board). The Committee will assist the Board in the effective discharge of its responsibilities in the management of its people and their remuneration.

AEMO's ability to carry out its functions as the market and system operator of Australian energy markets and achieve its strategic objectives, while meeting the challenges of an industry undergoing transformation, depends on its people, their capacity and skills and their ability to be innovative and adaptable.

The Committee is responsible for performing its duties in accordance with this Charter and making recommendations to the Board on people and remuneration matters of relevance to AEMO.

2. Duties and Responsibilities

The Committee will:

- Monitor the development and implementation of AEMO's people strategies, including the development of strategies for:
 - the resourcing of AEMO;
 - the recruitment and retention of people, including their health, safety and well-being;
 - maintaining and further developing a positive workplace culture; and
 - performance against measures.
- Reviews and make recommendations to the Board on:
 - AEMO's people strategies in light of general trends and best practice in recruitment, management and retention and in the workplace generally;
 - a desired culture that aligns to the purpose and strategy;
 - a strategy to develop and maintain the desired culture;
 - mechanisms to monitor and evaluate organisational culture;
 - the organisation's values which are clear, periodically reviewed and communicated to stakeholders; and
 - a framework for the reward and recognition of workers
- Review and make recommendations to the Board on remuneration strategies, including performance payments and other monetary and non-monetary benefits.
- Monitor the policy and regulatory environment affecting or which may impact on AEMO's people and remuneration strategies.

- Review and advise on AEMO’s framework for reward and recognition of workers.
- Review and make recommendations to the Board on the Managing Director and Executive General Managers’ annual remuneration reviews and performance payment.
- Monitor AEMO’s compliance with its work, health, safety and environment (WHSE) obligations and integration of WHSE into corporate strategy, risk management framework, and people and culture priorities.
- Monitor AEMO’s processes for identifying, correcting & managing employee misconduct, including discrimination, harassment and bullying.
- Review talent management and succession planning.
- Consider matters referred to the Committee by the Board or other Board Committees.
