Metrology Procedure – Part A v7.4

Section	Description	Participant Comments
Version History	Note v7.2 missing from version history.
14 (a), 14(b)	The final Rule made by the AEMC requires DNSPs to record and MCs and FRMPs to notify DNSPs of a Shred Fuse arrangement when they become aware of that arrangement. The drafting in the Metrology Procedure does not specify that, but rather specifies that the DNSPs	Insert the phrase ‘when they become aware’ into clauses 14(a) and 14(b).

Section	Description	Participant Comments
	must record those arrangements and that MCs and FRMPs must notify the DNSP of any new or existing Shared Fuse arrangements. Removing the words 'becoming aware' changes the obligation from one of advise when identified to an obligation to actively review each connections, which is substantially different to the Rule obligation.
